

peachy Jane

Peachy Jane's sound has been compared to David Byrne, Neil Young, Fleetwood Mac, The Hour Glass and The Allman Brothers; however, the band's music encompasses an eclectic range of styles from reggae to jazz with a rock twist.

Bringing their own unique sound to radio the group was featured in Radio Solents' "South Live" Demo Panel, to positive reviews. A comment from one of the demo panel was "There's definitely something going on there..."

Peachy Jane have also been featured as Forest FM's Breakthrough Artist of the Month for April 2008. The band did a live radio session and received daily airplay on the station for that month. Forest FM also hosted a headline gig for the band.

Peachy Jane have had radio airplay on Off the Chart, Cable Radio Milton Keynes, BBC Radio Solent, Forest FM Bay Radio and HopeFM and have been featured twice by Unsigned Chart - www.unsignedchart.com.

The band formed in early 2006 originally with Simon Kang on bass, Graham Brown (drums), Vicky (vocals), and Rebecca Fludgate (guitar), and Daniel Kietzman (lead guitar).

The band started gigging and recording material that summer with their first gig being at the Thomas Tripp Live in Christchurch. They went on to play Centre Stage, The Joiners, The Green Room (Portman) and O'Neills.

Dave Lovell joined the band on bass in September 2007 but left in the summer of 08 so the band took a break until Mike Walker joined in November on bass guitar until March 09 when he left due to work commitments. The band looked for a new member and found Steve Chapman who joined in July 09 to complete the line up once more. Onto 2010 and the band have had a change of line up. Dan left the band in December and Graham left in February 2010 to work on new projects. Rob Haines (drums) and Jonathan Barry (lead guitar) joined the band in February 2010.

Jon Barry is a guitarist, writer and producer from the New Forest. He has played the London circuit regularly, as well as tours in the UK and Europe, before moving to South Hampshire. He has written music for EMI and film. Originally from Bournemouth but now based in Southampton, Rob Haines went on the road with a gothic-rock band called "Bram Stoker" when he was seventeen and for many years Rob toured Europe, Scandinavia, Far East, Middle East and India in a hard-working covers band. Vicky and Beca Fludgate have been working together writing and producing songs since the 90's with Beca being the main songwriter for the band. Steve Chapman started a life-long interest in bass when he was at school playing the cello in an orchestra and a spin-off jazz band.
