Memphis, Chicago, and the Mississippi Delta all feature in the Atlas of the Blues. Now we must add err... Swanage. Well, it is in the deep south, go any further and you get your feet wet. Yes, it's Memphis, Chicago, and the Mississippi Delta all feature in the Atlas of the Blues. Now we must add err... Swanage. Well, it is in the deep south, go any further and you get your feet wet. Yes, it's time once again for the Swanage Blues Festival. This event has now been running for the past ten years, and has grown both in size and quality.

Three days of excellent music in a friendly seaside town, with a great atmosphere, and there are some really good fish and chips to be had here. You really can ride that blues train, courteously of The Swanage Steam Railway, or drag your Dobro down to the .White Horse if you want to jam. The vast majority of the gigs are free, although you really should put a few quid into the buckets every time you see a gig, as this is how the event is funded. Chase a bucketeer down the street if you have to, 40 gigs in 15 venues. Highly recommended.

I can clearly remember the shockwaves that hit sleepy Bournemouth when the first of the punk bands hit the town. The Gillette razor blade worn as an ear ring, the safety pins, the power and the energy. O.K., Bournemouth was a long way behind London, but the power of punk left an indelible scar on the music scene. Sham 69 were considered the godfathers of "Oi/Street Punk", being a huge influence on the genre. This band has retained it's street cred. They have a new album out soon, which will have "some bollocks rather than bang some desperate product just to sell". I fully expect that Champions will be packed on Thursday, March 4th.

Los Mondo Bongo - Celebrating the music of Joe Strummer of The Clash, is at Champions on Saturday 20th. The band features Mike Peters (The Alarm) Pablo Cook and Smiley (The Mescaleros) percussion/drums, Derek Forbes (Simple Minds) on Bass, Steve Harris, (Gary Numan) guitar DJ Ray Gange (Rude Boy) Also appearing here; Ian Siegal is widely hailed as the UK's leading Blues performer. MOJO magazine said: "Ian Siegal is the cleverest writer and most magnetic performer of Blues working in the UK" and his last album release was described by MOJO as being "...grounded in tradition, airborne by imagination, ... one of the most inventive Blues recordings ever made by a British Artist" Catch him on Tuesday 30th The Chris Walker Swinglet are pleased to announce a new series of jazz evenings on the 1st Friday of each month at The Fountain Court Hotel in Frost Lane Hythe. Pass it on. Next one is 5th March.

Sax player Sean Freeman is a vital member of Level 42. He is currently limbering up for another tour with the band. Previous employers include King Creole, Martha Reeves, and Hank Marvin. His current collaboration with the highly respected drummer Dave Cutler, "Critical Issues", arrives at Champions on 31st March. Those in the know will relish the rare chance to catch these two together, as part of a band of stratospheric quality, which also has the Laughlin brothers, Phil & Rick on Bass & Keyboards, and Russ "Chico" Tarley on conguero. The set includes original stuff plus some funky standards from the likes of Steve Winwood, ' summarised as ... everything good, great and funky. Just to add to the excitement, they are supported by the superb Chunk. Two bands loaded with musicians at the top of their game...Probably the most important gig in the area this month.

This months must see gig at Mr Kyps has to be the 'Slobs' Charity Night in aid of Poole Hospital Wish List. It's going to be an amazing night, with guest including the incredible Roy Young, one of the world's greatest Rock and Rollers who has worked with every body, including the Beatles. His Boogie Woogie piano makes him one of the world's most incredible entertainers with Fire, Soul and Gritty Passion!! Also joining in the fun is Robert Hart from Bad Company. The gig is scheduled for Thursday 25th March.

When Paul Lamb and Johnny Dickinson released their album "Playin' With The Blues" it was described by Graham Rhodes as a "marriage made in heaven." This is pre-war acoustic Delta Blues, with a couple of original songs. Expect numbers by Tampa Red, Reverend Gary Davis, T-Bone Walker, Blind boy Fuller and their contemporaries. Expect stunning guitar playing from Johnny, and the wonderful harmonica work of Paul Young. Wonderful stuff, you will agree. Get your tickets now. Centre Stage Bournemouth Folk Club, Thurs. 25th March.

A couple of things that you should do this month. First go to www.voodooegas.com and check out the new Voo Doo Vegas video "So Unkind" Raunchy, Rocking and glorious! Make sure you get down to the Rydal in New Milton to catch the scarily good Scott McKeon. He has an eagerly awaited CD release later this year... He appears on Thursday 4th. The Katie Tizzard band are here on 25th. One to watch I think. Have downloaded a couple of songs from her Myspace page, and have them playing as I write this. On Sunday The Rydal plays host to local boy Darren Hodson and Geoff Lai. Have caught Darren a few times, very impressive.
